"Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand."

Matthew 12:25

Relevant questions to the matter of "Unity"

1. Am I actively pursuing Unity, waiting for it to happen, or do I have no interest in the subject?

2. Is my heart still within the family territory? What really makes me happy?

3. How do I define faithfulness? How am I diligent in pursuing it?

4. Is there still time to spend with those "whom I care about the most"?!

5. Am I a spiritual being, a carnal one, or just "normal"?!

6. Are there any kinds of references or guidelines when conflicts arise within the family?

7. How do I define my role within the family?