

“Therefore, when your eye
is good, your whole body
also is full of light”

Luke 11:34

❑ A good eye looks at what is “Not Seen” (1)

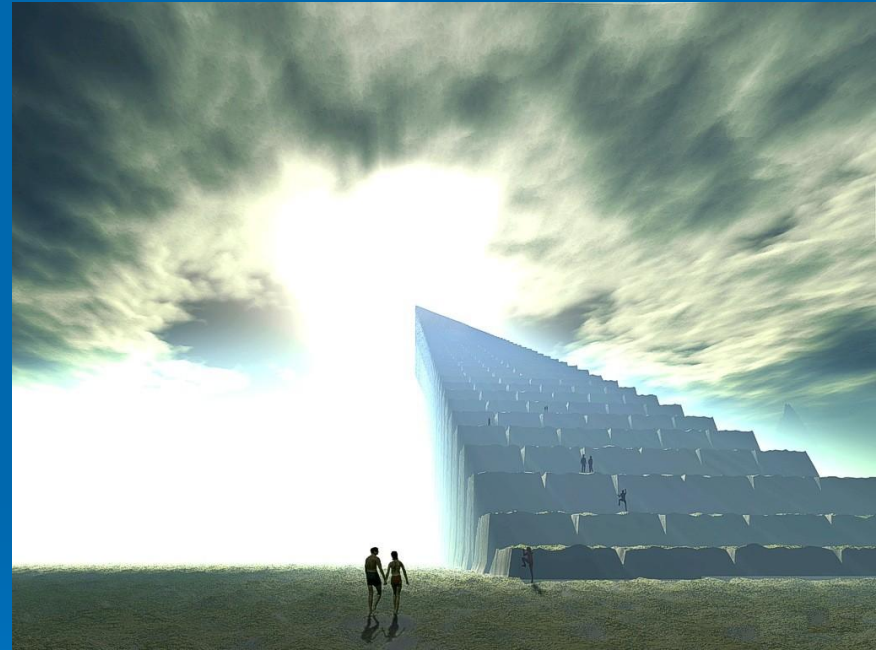

- “...while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.”

2 Corinthians 4:18

- The wisdom of God behind the events
- The reward kept for the faithful
- The will of God and what would be pleasing to Him
- The inhabitants of heaven and their example

❑ A good eye looks beyond the “Outward” appearance

- Do you look at things according to the outward appearance?
2 Corinthians 10:7
- Not hastening to judgment
- Not deceived by riches or deceiving words (not all that glitters is gold)

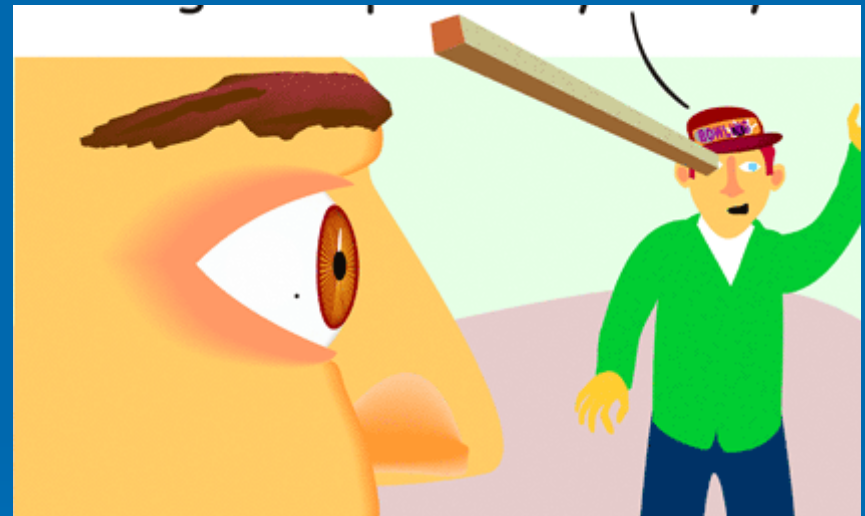

❑ A good eye judges itself and not others ⁽¹⁾

- And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the plank in your own eye?

Luke 6:41

- Double standards and self-blindness

❑ A good eye judges itself and not others (2)

- “My sins run out behind me, and I do not see them, and today I am coming to judge the errors of another”

St. Moses the Strong

❑ A good eye is attentive to others' interests

- “Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.”

Philippians 2:4

- How much am I mindful of others' feelings and interests?

❑ A good eye looks at oneself and the path being walked upon

- “Look to yourselves, that we do not lose
those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward”

2 John 1:8

❑ A good eye turns away from dwelling upon vanities

- “Do not look on the wine when it is red, when it sparkles in the cup, When it swirls around smoothly”

Proverbs 23:31

❑ A good eye sees the good in others

- “Therefore I say to you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much”

Luke 7:47
